4th November 2019

Dear Parents/Carers,

On Friday 15th November Year 4 are going to see a production of "In the net". This is a drama production sponsored by the local safeguarding board which explores the topics of Cyber bullying and e-safety.

Following the performance the children will spend the rest of the day at Oakfield Primary School completing follow up activities with the Oakfield year 4 children.

We are asking you to drop off and collect your children from the Appley car park in Ryde.

Details of the trip are as follows:

Date: Friday 15th November

Time: 9am - 2pm

Place: Oakfield Primary School

Clothing: School uniform

Lunch: Packed lunch, morning snack and drink.

Transport: Could you please transport your child to the Appley car Park, Ryde for 9am. They will be met by school staff and then walk to Oakfield Primary school.

Please collect your child from the same car park at 2pm.

Please complete the form below by Monday 11th November.

Please let the school know if your contact details will be different on the 15th November from those currently held on file.

Yours sincerely,
Mrs Maria Herbert
